

Ten Ways Parents Can Support Their Child's Learning

#1

1. Make sure your child is well rested and fed before he/she starts the school day.
2. Talk with your child daily about his/her school day and homework assignments.
3. Learn ways to assist your child with his/her homework—without doing it yourself!
4. Provide an appropriate place for your child to do homework.
5. Help your child break down homework into small steps.
6. Encourage and praise your child's efforts.
7. Help your child develop a consistent daily routine and study time for doing homework.
8. Encourage your child's curiosity and creativity.
9. Provide a variety of reading materials for your child and model daily reading.
10. Encourage your child to become involved with student leadership activities.
