

Ten Ways Parents Can Be Involved With Their Child's Education

#3

1. Contact your child's teacher early and maintain communication throughout the school year.
2. Participate in parent/teacher conferences.
3. Ask the teacher what your child is learning and how you can support this at home.
4. Talk with your child daily about homework, classroom activities, and events.
5. Learn about school policies and expectations so you can help your child understand them.
6. Make efforts to stay informed of school and classroom events.
7. Model behaviors and attitudes you expect from your child.
8. Encourage and nurture your child's creativity.
9. Be proactive in making the school aware of your support for your child's education.
10. Talk with your employer about flex time so you can participate in school activities.
